

Jeff obtained a B.S. in both Accounting and Management Information Systems from Wright State University in 2001. He has been with Flagel, Huber, Flagel & Co. since graduation from WSU and is currently a tax manager. Jeff works closely with many of the firm's larger professional medical practice clients and has very diverse experience in the medical field. Jeff manages the tax return preparation for many of our larger physician groups which require multi-state and multi-city returns. In addition to his MIS degree, Jeff has attended specific software training, including Microsoft, and provides software consulting to clients. He also has been involved in the firm's recruiting and training programs. Jeff is a member of the American Institute of CPA's, the Ohio Society of CPA's, Dayton Area Tax Professionals, and the Miami Valley Venture Association. Additionally, Jeff is a member and former Treasurer of the Oakwood Rotary Club, has been involved with Relay for Life events, and is a frequent volunteer at fundraising activities for various local art organizations.
