

Randolph N. Kramer

Randy joined the firm in 1986 upon his graduation from Wright State University and became a partner in 1998.

While spending a considerable amount of time in the area of auditing, Randy also provides accounting, tax and consulting services to a variety of clients primarily in the areas of real estate, retail operations, professional services and homeowners associations.

Within the firm, Randy is involved with recruiting and serves as the firm's Internal Examination Review Committee Chairman, a group that oversees the quality of the firm's accounting and auditing practice. He also is on the Board of Trustees of various not-for-profit organizations.
