

Terrence P. Egan

Terry joined the firm in 1975 after he received a Bachelor of Science degree in business from Wright State University. Upon successfully completing the CPA examination, he was admitted to practice in 1976 and became a partner in 1982.

While the majority of Terry's endeavors are in the audit area, he devotes a significant portion of his time to handling a variety of clients' accounting and tax requirements, primarily in the areas of health care, real estate, wholesale and retail operations, as well as not-for-profit.

In addition to membership in the American Institute of CPAs and the Ohio Society of CPAs, Terry participates in a number of charitable/community organizations.
