

David P. Dirksen

David earned his B.S. in Accountancy from Wright State University in 1988. Upon graduation, he joined Flagel, Huber, Flagel & Co., and he became a Partner in October, 2000. David has served on the firm's executive committee and is currently involved with the firm's Internal Examination Review Committee, a group that oversees the quality of the firm's accounting and auditing practice.

David's expertise is in the accounting and auditing area where he works with several of the firm's larger real estate, distribution and manufacturing clients. He also has extensive experience with tax and consulting for a variety of family-owned businesses. In addition, David has obtained the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) designation from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and specializes in the appraisal of closely-held businesses.

Currently, David is a member of The American Institute of CPA's and The Ohio Society of CPA's. He is also a member of the Board of Directors for Rhythm in Shoes and the Dor-Wood Optimist club.
